

REMARKS

Claims 1-18, 44, 45, 47, and 48 were allowed in the Notice of Allowability accompanying said Examiner's Amendment H. As stated by Examiner Bashore to the undersigned on August 25, 2006. The purpose of Examiner's Amendment H was to implement Amendment G mailed by the undersigned to the USPTO on February 13, 2006. However, numerous typographical errors appear in said Examiner's Amendment H. The sole purpose of this Amendment I is to correct said typographical errors. Therefore, the Examiner is requested to enter this Amendment I, which seeks to amend claims 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 12, 13, 16, 44 and 47. Reconsideration of this application as amended, and allowance of all claims remaining herein, claims 1-18, 44, 45, 47, and 48 as currently amended, are hereby respectfully requested.

In addition to the typographical errors being corrected in the claim amendments in the preceding pages, please note the additional errors in said Examiner's Amendment H. It is not appropriate to attempt to correct these errors in the present Amendment I, because they are errors of either: 1) not underlining things that should have been underlined, or 2) typographical errors in phrases being deleted:

In claim 1 line 12, the deleted expression should have been "all of".

In claim 3 line 4, "for trading" should have been underlined.

In claim 3 line 9, the deleted expression should have been "agents".

In claim 3 line 10, "means" should have been underlined.

In claim 3 line 14, both occurrences of the word "means" should have been underlined.

In claim 4 line 4, the deleted expression should have been "agents that want to trade."

In claim 4 line 10, "means" should have been underlined.

In claim 9 line 4, the deleted expression should have been "agents that wish to trade".

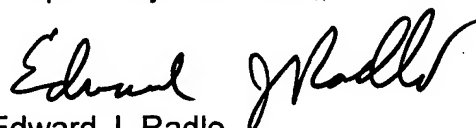

In claim 14 line 2, the deleted expression should have been "agent's".

In claim 16 line 2, the deleted expression should have been "agent's".

In claim 47 line 2, "agent means" should have been underlined.

Respectfully submitted,

Nov. 27, 2006
